TALES OF Two Cities

ALL FOR KIDS

Kids in Ontario and Upland have a lot to look forward to even before Christmas Day. This Saturday Santa Claus, under the sponsorship of the Upland Rotary club is coming to Upland and on Sunday via "Atomic Jet-Propelled Plane" he'll be at the Elks' lodge in Ontario, both times with gifts.

But that isn't all. In addition to many church and school parties, Upland youngsters will be able to go to a Christmas party at the Grove theater next Tuesday afternoon thanks to the Upland Lions. An all-comedy and cartoon show has been arranged for them "all for free," with gifts afterwards.

It certainly would be nice to be a kid again, at Christmas time, anyway.

LITTLE SCARE

William Tell on leave in Upland from the navy had himself a little scare the other day. He lost his billfold which included his leave papers from the San Diego naval base.

As all veterans can appreciate, Bill was pretty upset for awhile and you can imagine his relief when the billfold finally turned up.

FINALLY

We're glad to see that recognition has finally come to members of the Chaffey Panther squad. Selection of Bob Sachs, Anse McCullough and Bill Luman on the All-Southern California teams was no more than deserved, although we'd liked to have seen Bill on the first squad. The only thing we didn't like is that Compton had to get three men on it while we only got two. How come? Chet Nicholson is no slouch at end either nor does Lou Blanc give much ground at tackle. But then we got the Rose Bowl, so, I guess, we can't complain too much.

TAX CUTS

While we think that the national debt should be paid off as soon as possible, it would mean a lot to some 6,000,000 low-income people to have their taxes reduced or cut altogether as the bill introduced in the House by Red. Knutson (R-Minn) proposes. One thing we know, a lot of money could be saved by slashing the Federal payroll. And a little closer check on specplators inside of the government wouldn't hurt any either.

CHURCH NEWS

For the convenience of our readers, complete stories on Christmas programs and services planned by Upland and Ontario churches will be found on pages 4 and 5 in today's paper. We thought you'd like it better to have them all together instead of scattered around the paper throughout the week. Let us know what you think.

BRIEFLY

For those of you who aren't subscribers to The Daily News-Herald why not give yourself a real Christmas gift by starting delivery on this paper today. It's the fastest growing daily in the West End and improvements and additions will be made from time to time. Get The Daily News-Herald and get ALL THE NEWS. We print everything whether we personally agree with it or not. Just try it for awhile and see for yourself.

NICE COMPLIMENT

Upland city officials as well as the people of Upland have every reason to be proud of their building inspector, Dick Derby. Here's what an eastern manufacturer who dealt with him at a recent building conference had to say about him in a letter received here.

Recently our representatives had occasion to seek the advice of your building inspector, Richard Derby. Mr. Derby gave us more worthwhile and accurate information than was received from any other official contacted during our representative's coast trip.

Dick is a hard-working city official and we're glad to see him get some recognition at last.

ALL IN FAVOR

R. G. Manley, Upland city manager, has been receiving quite a few favorable reports about school safety patrols from a number of cities. He wrote to a number to find out their experience with it. So far, all of them, including San Diego and Phoenix, have enthusiastically endorsed it.

CHAFFEY'S SIDE

Public Demanded Hiring Publicity Official--Spring

Declaring that "this isn't anything new at Chaffey," Gardiner W. Spring, superintendent of Chaffey, said today that a public relations official was employed "because the public wanted it."

Regarding the ruling by R. J. Farrell, deputy county counsel, that the California Educational code prohibits the retention of a publicity man in junior colleges, Spring said that "it is rather embarrassing and merits further study."

The story that a warrant for the salary of Roy Civille, Chaffey public relations official, was being held up by the county educational department in San Bernardino appeared exclusively in The Daily News-Herald last night.

Spring, emphasizing repeatedly that public demand, particularly the newspapers, indicated a desire for information from Chaffey, said:

"This isn't anything new at Chaffey. We've had public relations all along. All schools in California find it necessary to maintain some type of public relations work."

Work Too Much

He pointed out that in past years Miss Mable Stanford, journalism instructor, handled publicity releases, but that her work has increased so it became necessary to retain someone else.

Community Joins To Celebrate Christmas

With humility and reverence, worshippers in Upland and Ontario will gather at services on Sunday, Wednesday and Christmas day to celebrate the greatest of all Christian festivals.

Many churches are planning special programs on Sunday, and outstanding events of the Christmas season will be the presentation of "The Messiah" at the Bethel Congregational church and a Christmas cantata, "While Shepherds Watched" at the Cucamonga Community church.

Members of the Ontario Lutheran church will gather for a

CONGRESS GETS MARSHALL PLAN

VOICE VOTE

Bill To Publicize Speculators Passed, Sent To White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House joined the Senate today in voting authority for Secretary of Agriculture Anderson to make public names of speculators in the commodity markets.

By voice vote, the House passed a resolution which would authorize the cabinet officer to publish the list at his own discretion or upon the request of a congressional committee.

The Senate appropriations committee has demanded to look at the names of heavy traders as part of an inquiry into reports that government "insiders" are using official information to profit on market transactions'

The measure now goes to the White House for President Truman's action. Mr. Truman said yesterday he is ready to sign such a resolution.

Before shouting its approval of the resolution, the House turned down a proposal to give any congressional committee the right to obtain individual income tax returns from the treasury or internal revenue bureau.

Anderson, leaving a cabinet meeting at the White House this morning told reporters his department is working on the lists.

He could not say how long it would take to get them in shape for publication. It is necessary, he explained, to check identifications of all those named to protect the innocent in cases where speculators bear the same names as well known persons who are not speculating.

Speaker Martin (Mass.) promised to try to rush through ahead of tonight's adjournment goal a Senate-approved resolution clearing Anderson of the legal obligations he said prevented his baring the list of speculators to the Senate appropriations committee yesterday.

Chaffey Nixes Compton Game

Gardiner W. Spring, Chaffey college president, yesterday afternoon informed a delegation of Los Angeles sportswriters that the Panthers would not participate in a "benefit" game with Compton in the Coliseum Dec. 27.

The game was proposed by Los Angeles newspapers after Chaffey copped the national championship by trouncing the Cameron Aggies, who were rated the top jaycee team before the game, in the Little Rose Bowl by a 39-26 score.

The Compton Tartars, who were edged out by Chaffey for the Little Rose Bowl bid, were 20-19 victors over Tyler, Texas, in a "Sour Grapes" contest at Tyler.

Spring's full statement read: "When a problem such as this arises, the first question to be answered is this: What is best for our students? To this question there can be but one answer: No more football this year.

"To schedule another game this season would be exploitation pure and simple of the fine men who have already given so much to Chaffey and Southern California. It would constitute an anti-climax to a brilliant season.

"Basketball has already begun. We are this week holding our inter-collegiate tournament. Some of our football boys are participating in this series of basketball games. We are sorry. Football is over; the basketball season has begun."

Santa Coming To Two Towns

Santa Claus is going to be a busy man this week-end.

Kiddies in Upland will be treated to a visit Saturday afternoon at approximately 3 o'clock, when Santa will appear at the corner of Ninth street and North Second avenue.

The jolly gent will arrive in Upland shortly before 3 o'clock and will be met by the fire truck with members of the Upland Rotary club serving as escorts. Small toys and gifts, instead of the candy usually given, will be distributed among the children.

Santa will arrive in a jet-propelled airplane at 5 p.m. on Sunday to greet children at the Ontario Elks lodge. He will be accompanied by Bozo, the magical clown for the occasion, and will distribute ice cream, cake, candy and presents for all.

Although Santa will not appear, a special show for children is being planned at the Grove theater on Tuesday afternoon. Sponsored by the Upland Lions club, the show will include cartoons and comedies and will climax with the presentation of gifts to all children.

Doors of the theater will open at 1 o'clock and the show, scheduled to start at 1:30 o'clock, will end at 3 o'clock. Howard Mason is the member of the Lions club in charge of arrangements.

Burglarize Car Of Chaffey Student

While attending classes at Chaffey, an unknown thief Wednesday burglarized the automobile of Alan Melton, Chino, removing fender skirts and a valuable radio, the youth reported to police.

Total value of his loss, Melton said, was $80.

Consider Extending Commercial Zone

Ontario city planners will meet next Monday night to consider a zone change on California boulevard, City Manager Harold Martin has announced.

G. W. Naftel has requested the commission to extend the commercial zone on the boulevard at Oaks avenue for an additional 100 feet north.

Naftel, Martin said, contemplates the building of a 26-unit trailer court in that area, now part of the residential zone.

EXPEDITER

President Truman has nominated Tight E. Woods (above) to be housing expediter. Woods, a resident of Illinois, has been serving as acting expediter since the resignation of Frank Creedon on Oct. 31. (AP Wirephoto.)

Meyers Indicted For Perjury

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers on charges of perjury and inducing others to swear to falsehoods.

The jury also indicted Bleriot H. Lamarre, 35.

The charges grew out of the Senate war investigating committee's inquiry into Meyers' wartime business deals.

Lamarre was charged on three counts of perjury in connection with his testimony to the Senate committee.

Lamarre had publicly admitted telling the committee a false story originally about his connections with Meyers, although he said he gave "a true story" afterward.

$17 Billion To Aid Europe Asked By Truman in Historic Message

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman asked congress today in an historic message to authorize spending $17,000,000,000 to underwrite European recovery lest the people of Europe fall into despair and surrender to "totalitarian control."

The President said in recommending by far the largest expenditure ever asked of Congress in time of peace that Europe must be stabilized or the American way of life will be endangered.

Repeatedly he warned against totalitarianism and he named Communism as the specific danger, saying the communists "unquestionably" would seek to block the aid program so as to promote chaos in Europe.

He asked that the billions be spent "in full confidence" of the wisdom of the program and "as a major step in our nation's quest for a just and lasting peace".

Even American security and American way of life are at stake, the chief executive declared.

He asked Congress to tip its "grave and significant decision"

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman's four-year, $17,000,000,000 aid Europe program had no more than reached Congress today before it ran into Republican demands that any pledge of assistance be limited to one year.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) of the Senate Republican policy committee told a reporter that he will do all he can to hold both authorizations and actual appropriations to a year-to-year basis.

"I don't think Congress should commit itself in advance to any four-year program," he declared.

in favor of the "Marshall plan" to finish a job on which he said $15,000,000,000 already had been spent since the war ended. The decision, he said, will:

Future at Stake

"Determine in large part whether the free nations of the world can look forward with hope to a peaceful and prosperous future as independent states, or whether they must live in poverty and in fear of selfish totalitarian aggression."

Besides sending the message for reading before the legislators, the President submitted the Purpose: To help 16 western European countries help themselves back to peace and prosperity by June 30, 1952.

Estimated cost: Between $151,000,000,000 and $17,800,000,000 depending on what happens to prices here at home.

Who would run it: A $20,000 a year economic cooperation administrator, a $17,500 deputy and a $25,000 roving ambassador.

Congress is asked: To authorize total spending of $17,000,000,000 and provide $6,800,000,000 in actual money for first 15 months.

Outlook: Long hearings and hot debate over both amount of money and plans for running program.

GOP Price Plan Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House sent to President Truman without change today the Senate-passed bill for voluntary pricing agreements to hold down living costs.

Democrats made a futile attempt to alter the measure and give the President authority to order allocation of scarce commodities if necessary, but they were overwhelmed by an almost solid Republican front.

The bill was passed with only two hours of debate under procedure that prevented free offering of amendments and curtailed debate. Dmocrats condemned the procedure as "super gag," but Republicans replied that with Congress adjourning tonight it was the Senate bill or nothing at all.

Before final passage, the House defeated on a 156 to 73 standing vote a motion to send the measure back to the banking committee for inclusion of authority for the President to divide up scarce commodities when voluntary agreements fail.

Illegal Lot Sales Hit; Upland Council Hints Prosecution

Illegal transactions by real estate dealers who sell lots before a record of survey has been submitted were hit by the Upland city council at its meeting last night.

City Attorney Henry Busch stated that such lot sales are flagrant violations of the city planning code and have been prevalent of late.

Although unwilling to make a "guinea pig" of any particular case last night, council members agreed that in the future open flounting of city ordinances should be prosecuted and urged all real estate salesmen and property buyers to make sure a record of survey has been completed before escrow is finished.

In addition, R. G. Manley, city manager, requested that real estate sales not be made until assurance has been received that building and water plans conform to the overall city planning setup.

Give Approval

On recommendation of the city planning commission, council members voted to approve a building permit for a lot on Sycamore court owned by Howard Cole. The approval was granted conditional to the presentation of a record of survey map suitable for filing in the city records.

A record of survey for a lot owned by Lewis Phillips on West Arrow highway was also approved on recommendation of the planners.

Recommendation of the planning commission that W. J. Kitchel be granted permission to make neceessary repairs for the re-opening of a service station and restaurant at Foothill boulevard and Mountain avenue under provisions of non-conforming use was voted by council members.

Hemingway Asks Change In Ordinance

Harold K. Hemingway, owner of Foothill Village at Foothill boulevard and Euclid avenue, last night requested the Upland city council to amend a city ordinance regulating keeping of livestock within the city limits. The matter was referred to the planning commission for action.

Hemingway's request was made, he said, so that he might be able to keep a display of Karakul sheep

U.S. Plan for Japan 'Shocking'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Knowland (R-Calif) demanded in the Senate today a "full-scale investigation" of American intentions in Japan. He said he had obtained a "confidential" document indicating the plans are shocking."

Knowland said the document is "FEC 230" and details plans for American representatives on the far eastern commission. The commission was set up by the United States, Soviet Russia and other wartime allies to control Japan and other occupied areas in the far east.

The Senator said the plans deal with American proposals for breaking up Japanese industries and business concerns, are "contrary to American standards of decency and fair play, and are not in conformity with our own political, moral and economic standards."

Upland To Get $1,058 For State Highways

The city of Upland will receive $1,058 from the state highway department during the first six months of 1948 for maintenance of state highway portions lying within the city limits.

City Manager R. G. Manley, who was authorized by the city council last night to sign the contract providing the funds, stated the money was not sufficient for the maintenance of the highways but that the work would probably not be done unless it was handled by the city.

The money is allocated as follows: $47 for maintenance of Foothill boulevard, $289 for Nineteenth street and $322 for Euclid avenue.

Tip For Contractor

UPLAND COUNCIL HAS SIDEWALK JOB FOR YOU IF YOU CAN SOLICIT

Is there a contractor in the Upland area wishing to take on a sidewalk construction job? If so the city council can probably direct him to one.

The council at its meeting last night decided to look for a contractor who will contact property owners on the west side of Campus avenue, between Arrow highway and Foothill boulevard and obtain their definite agreement to put in sidewalks there, at the expense of the property owners.

Property owners in that area have informed the city council from time to time with such a plan in mind but have failed to band themselves together for that purpose, council members were told last night.

Council members agreed that the organization could be handled best by a private contractor. The problem now, according to the general opinion of the council, is to find a contractor to do the solicitation and install the sidewalks after obtaining the pledge of property owners to stand the expense.

RANCHOS BECOME CITIES . . . POMONA
Pomona: the Goddess of Fruit
Taking its name from Roman mythology, the town of Pomona was founded in 1875 on the fertile acres of Rancho San Jose. Its present limits lie within the boundaries of land once owned by Ricardo Vejar and Ygnacio Palomares. By 1887 — the year of incorporation as a city — Pomona boasted a population of 3500 and many business houses, including the prominent Palomares Hotel, illustrated above. Today Pomona is surrounded by orchards and gardens, a peaceful, prosperous city lying on what was once a sheep and cattle ranch of Mexican days.

Inclusion of Upland In Metropolitan Water Area To Be Investigated

Report 'Rumors' About Procedure To Be Employed

Possibility of the inclusion of Upland in the Metropolitan Water District was discussed at the meeting of the Upland city council last night.

The matter arose when Mayor Eugene Nisbet asked if a city could be included in the district regardless of the wishes of the city residents. Mayor Nisbet commented that "rumors were flying" that Upland would be included in the district but that the choice of the city will be determined by the Metropolitan district before any definite action is taken".

Councilman Ray Sherwood told members that plans were underway for such action with an active district committee at work on it now, according to information he has received.

Councilman Paul Hottel stated he believed the city should determine how the district is to be formed if such action affecting Upland is taken and that he would like to know if Upland might be partitioned with half the city in one water basin and the other half in another.

The members decided to take up the matter at their next meeting after City Attorney Henry Busch has had time to investigate the matter.

Marshall Plan Given Congress, $17 Billion Asked For Europe

draft of legislation setting up an economic cooperation administration to administer the program under a $20,000-a-year administrator, a $17,500-a-year deputy administrator, and a roving foreign representative with the full rank of ambassaador and a $25,000 salary.

The program envisions aid to 16 nations which endorsed the plan at Paris, but makes possible participation in the European recovery program by any European country which can qualify under the standards originally laid down in the so-called "Marshall plan".

Early Action

The President said he was submitting the program at the tail end of the special session in order that Congress may proceed rapidly in the new January session to make the program effective by next April 1.

The program calls for an appropriation of $6,800,000,000 for the first 15 months—from April 1, 1948, to June 30, 1949.

Mr. Truman said the best estimates that can now be made indicate appropriations of about $10,200,000,000 will be required for the last three years, carrying the program to June 30, 1952.

While describing the total cost as large, he said it would be "only about five per cent of the cost of our effort in the recent war" and "less than three per cent of our national income during the life of the program".

The President said that while many commodities needed for Europe will be obtained outside the U. S., "some self-denial" will be required from the people of this country.

not as accessible from Chaffey as to newspapers in Ontario and Upland, have requested some form of public relations often in the past, Spring stated.

Public relations work has to be done, and in all the larger schools in California there are public relations officers, Spring continued.

"We must give more attention to releasing information because it is of vital concern to the public. We are merely following the precedent in other schools," he added.

Clerical Work

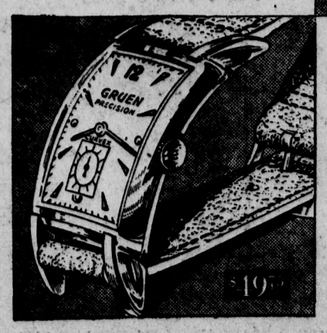

As to the future status of Civille, the Chaffey superintendent said that Civille has actually been doing a lot of clerical work, including writing letters, and that it may be possible to keep him on as his secretary.

"Often our laws don't measure up to present needs and this demand (for a public relations man) came from the public," Spring concluded.

Asks Change In Ordinance

at his place of business. He was directed by the city council to remove a display of sheep from Foothill Village a few weeks ago.

He charged that the controversy over his sheep display which arose shortly after Halloween did not originate in Upland and that it was his firm belief that no one in Upland opposed the display. The main notice, Hemingway said, came from outside sources for personal reasons.

He said that permission to keep a display on his premises would be of great benefit to him as at the present time he must drive interested persons seven miles in ordr to display the animals to them.

Up To Planners

The council members agreed that any action on a city planning ordinance would have to have the approval of the city planning commission and referred the matter to that body.

The Hemingway sheep were again the topic of conversation a short while later when a new health ordinance for the city was discussed.

Mayor Eugene Nesbit expressed the hope that the new health ordinance now being drafted by City Attorney Henry Busch with the aid of Joseph Martin city health officer, would provide specifications for pens containing livestock in the proximity of eating places.

City Attorney Busch told council members he hopes to have the health ordinance ready for their action by the next council meeting.

Councilman Paul Hottel commented that the sooner the new health ordinance could be put into operation the better as the existing ordinance is far out of date, having been enacted more than 20 years ago.

Start Repairs

The council received a letter from the Euclid Avenue Orange association stating that repairs on the sidewalk south of the association's building on West Seventh street are now under way and steps to prevent obstruction of the sidewalk by trucks are now being taken, in compliance with a recent request of the council.

A letter from the Beulah college board of trustees was read expressing appreciation for courtesies extended by city officials in a recent conference over the college plumbing needs and assuring the council that all plumbing requirements of the city ordinance would be met as they arose in the institution's building program.

Jury Acquits John Spreckels

PASADENA (AP)—Sugar Heir John D. Spreckels III, tried on charges that he hit his pretty blond wife with a poker in their home last Sept, 22, was acquitted of the assault charge by a superior court jury last night.

The innocent verdict was returned by an 11-man jury after it had deliberated 7½ hours. Attorneys agreed that the 11 men could decide the case after the 12th man, John C. Coy, suffered a heart attack at his home.

Mrs. Lou Dell Spreckels had charged that the 37-year-old Spreckels, her seventh husband, assaulted her during an argument at their Arcadia home. Spreckels denied the charge and yesterday called six defense witnesses who all testified that Mrs. Spreckels' reputation for truth, veracity and integrity was either "bad" or "very bad."

Dismantling Of German Plants Is Prohibited

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Senate struck from a foreign aid money bill today a prohibition against further dismantling of German industrial plants and shipment to Russia.

Action came on voice vote after Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the foreign relations committee said while he favors halting such consignments to Russia, the Senate's action would have had the effect of repudiating American agreement at the Paris conference at which friendly European nations were promised German reparations.

The provision had been written into an omnibus money bill calling for $1,091,246,500 including emergency help for foreign nations.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal grand jury today neared the end of an investigation into the wartime private business deals of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, retired deputy procurement chief of the army air force.

Hollywood Santas Are Expensive, Out-of-Work Actors Fill Roles

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Hollywood still believes in Santa Claus, even though he comes kinda high —$15 to $25 per half-hour.

The idea is Robert Strauss' gift to starry-eyed kids and out-of-work actors. His busy agency supplies, in any number, personalized Kris Kringles fully brief on Junior's good and bad habits.

They do not climb down chimneys except for a much higher fee.

Strauss, an actor himself, never played St. Nick before, but he's sold on the role now.

"It all started when a friend of mine asked be a few weeks ago to play Santa for his children," Strauss related. "He was afraid they'd recognize him. I got to thinking about it, and decided I'd go a step farther. Why not make this a better Christmas for other actors who, like myself, do not work all the time?"

His first move was an advertisement in a newspaper: "Santa in person at your home, office, school, factory or parties. Your child will thrill to a visit by Santa now . . . approved by the better board of Santa Clauses . . . "

Then he signed up with a telephone service. Calls began coming in before Dec. 4.

"All our Santas are bona fide actors," Strauss asserted. "They wear fine costumes, and their makeup is supervised by a film studio. We go to homes, mostly, and we get our information in advance—names, ages, habits, likes and dislikes of the children.

"Then Santa shows up with a big order book. He knows the names of all his customers' pets and dolls. He conducts his interview. He recites " 'Twas the Night Before Christmas."

"Since Dec. 4 we have been charging for this service $15 per half hour. Sometimes it's $10, if it's a church or a private school. All our Santas are movie, radio or stage actors, and they know their stuff."

The fee, on Dec. 24 and 25, will go up to $25 per half hour, Strauss added. "We'll be terribly rushed then, of course."

Russ Celebrate End of Rationing

MOSCOW (AP) — Izvestia published dispatches from many parts of the Soviet Union today reporting that since rationing was abolished Sunday, there has been wide scale consumer buying in a "holiday-like" atmosphere.

Russian citizens currently are trading their old rubles for new at rates varying up to ten to one. The currency revaluation and the end of rationing were announced in the same edict.

Izvestia said 120,000 retail stores had been repaired or organized anew in a short period, and were selling goods.

"The stores have large quantities of goods," the newspaper said.

The article cited the trade ministries of Armenia, Moldavia and Uzbekistan, however, as "lagging behind" in the development of trade.

"The network of stores in Chelyabinsk, Rostov and Kirov regions is not sufficiently organized," the article said, "many stores remain unoccupied and the law giving ground floors in certain new buildings to stores has not been carried out everywhere. It is now up to the workers that all mass goods should reach the consumers and rapidly. Collective stores and cooperative stores should be organized more energetically and more farmer markets should be set up."

Consider R. R. Crossing Gates

The possibility of again installing automatic crossing gates at five important rail crossings in Ontario is being probed by the city government.

City Manager Harold Martin has addressed a letter to the railroad company regarding the matter. He said he had inquired about the possibilities of installing the gates at San Antonio, Vine, Euclid, Sultana and Campus avenues.

In acknowledging receipt of the communication, the company has requested more time to study the matter, he said.

Automatic gates, identical with the ones now in use in Pomona, were in use in Ontario at one time.

They were later removed after complaints that traffic problems were intensified, rather than relieved, by their use.

City Managers Meet At Redlands

City managers and engineers of the Citrus belt district met recently in Redlands for their monthly luncheon and discussion, City Manager Harold Martin said today.

"The Collier Bill and Its Application to Your Community," was the topic discussed. That bill is the new highway act passed by the assembly at the last session. A representative of the state was present to lead the discussion on the measure. David Weil, assistant Ontario city engineer, was present at the meeting.

BOOK REPORT

ONTARIO PUBLIC LIBRARY

Did you know that you may renew books, checked out from the library, by telephone? During the busy holiday season, this is worth remembering. Simply dial 621-123, and be prepared to tell the assistant who answers the phone just three things: 1. When the book is due. 2. The author and title. 3. The number in the left hand corner of the pocket in the book, provided a number is typed there.

A telephone renewal will save you from having to pay overdue fines, and it will save the library the time and money involved in sending you an overdue notice. (The library hates to send overdue notices even worse than you hate to get them.) So the next time you can't get to the library when your book is due, or overdue, just pick up your telephone; it will save you steps and money.

Now that the Karakul sheep issue has died down perhaps it will be safe to mention that not long ago some intrepid soul asked the library for information on how to raise Karakul sheep. We have the information, in case you, too, are interested. Also how to raise foxes and other fur-bearing animals. We may even have information on how to raise money to buy a mink coat!

Then again, if you are of a scientific mind, you may want information on the infra-red light, as one patron recently did.

Would you like a trip to Sweden? In comemmoration of the Swedish Pioneer Centennial being celebrated in 1948, an essay contest, with free trips to Scandinavia as the prizes, is being held. The subject for the essay is: "The influence of Swedish settlers on a community or region," The contest closes April 1, 1948. For further information, inquire at the main desk in the library.

Books recently added to the library collection which are especially in keeping with the season are: "Modern toasts for all occasions," by Bertha Conelly; "It's Fun to Make It Yourself," by Stacy Maney; "The Party Table," by Margaret Powers; "Let's Cook it Right," by Adele Davis, and "How to Paint and Stencil Textiles," by Albert Brownley.

Did you know that your library is in festive dress? If you haven't visited the library since the Christmas decorations have been put up, try to remember to do so, the next time you are in the neighborhood. Just because you are an adult, don't hesitate to include the Children's Room in your visit. It looks like fairyland and smells of the pine woods. As one appreciative patron observed, "It's as if you were in another world."

While things having to do with Christmas occupy a good real of the time in our Reference Department, (How can I make my own Christmas cards? I want pictures of Cathedral windows to make a stained glass effect. Have you any suggestions for homemade Christmas tree decorations? Do you have patterns for making soft toys?) the rest of the events of the world come washing up to the library steps, too. When a certain Princess married a few weeks ago, more people than you might suppose became interested in royal lineage, crowned heads and the intermarriage of royalty in the various European countries.

A recent eclipse of the sun also brought a number of questions on astronomy and the causes of an eclipse. Which reminds us, have you read mark Twain's "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" lately? You will remember how useful an eclipse proved to be for the Connecticut Yankee.

Then there is the matter of these new Roosevelt dimes which are beginning to appear. Are they regular or commemorative? Your public library thinks that the citizens of Ontario are on their toes and we are glad you make use of us.

Have you parents investigated the library's collection of books on child training? A recent addition to this group of books has been, "Opening the Bible to children," by E. S. Whitehouse.

Professor Accused As Reds Win Settlement in Suit

BLOOMINGTON, IND. (AP) — Dean Bernard C. Gavit of the Indiana University law school and Prof. W. Howard Mann, a member of the law school faculty, today announced settlement of suits they brought in federal courts against five Hearst newspapers for mention of their names in an editorial.

They said a cash settlement of an undisclosed amount, agreement to publish a retraction and dismissal of the suits had been negotiated with the Chicago Herald-American, the New York Journal-American, the Milwaukee Sentinel, the Baltimore News-Post and the Los Angeles Examiner.

The two educators had sought damages totaling $400,000.

The editorial was based on an investigation by the Indiana university board of trustees of subversive influences on the I. U. campus. The charges were made by the American Legion. The board said it was unable to find any evidence to substantiate the charges.

Christ's Birth Discussed By Lloyd E. Ellis

Prophesied for thousands of years, expected by the Israelites and other people, and heralded by the angels, the advent of Christ into the world occupies one of the most prominent places in the thinking of Christiantiy.

These and similar thoughts are to be considered by Lloyd E. Ellis, minister of the Upland Church of Christ, in his Sunday morning discourse at which time he speaks on "The Birth of Christ." The evening sermon will be closely related in thought but different in content, when he speaks on "The Spirit of Christ."

Atomic Force Subject For Science Lecture

The text of the Sunday lesson-sermon for the Ontario Christian Science church is chosen from Psalms and reads, "The word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth . . . For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast." The question "'Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject.

Matthew's Gospel reports that after Jesus had fed the multitude, he "constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him, unto the other side . . . And . . . he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when evening was come, he was there alone. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea."

CHRISTMAS DOMINATES SERVICES

Christmas will be the theme of all services held in the First Free Methodist church, Ontario, this Sunday, beginning with the Sunday school worship period at 9:30 a.m. The service will be devoted largely to carol singing and to the recognition of the part that music plays in the observance of this Christian festivity.

The morning worship service at 10:50 o'clock will close the series of messages by the pastor, the Rev. William A. Hulet, which have been dealing with the great Christmas hymns. The subject for this sermon is "Should We Sing Praises Today?"

The annual Christmas Vespers service of the church will be held at 4:30 o'clock. The music of the youth chorus will be the main feature of the candlelight service with several special solos and trios to be heard. The Christmas story will be briefly presented.

Immediately after the formal service in the church sanctuary closes, the congregation will join in a candlelight march of caroling in the immediate vicinity of the church.

The annual Sunday school program of the church will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock, with the five departments of the Sunday school having prepared sections of the program.

CANDLELIGHT RITES PLANNED WEDNESDAY

Sunday morning in conjunction with the final Advent service confirmation of a large adult class and formal reception of new members will take place. The Rev. Carl Pohlmann, pastor will speak on "Grace And Truth Came by Jesus Christ."

H. Wilkins. The program consists of class songs, recitations, a pageant interspersed, choir and quartette selections and a musical background.

Our Thoughts Turn To the Giver Of All Things at Christmas Time

Churches in the community should be filled, of all times, on Sunday.

Christmas should be and quite generally is, a deeply religious period. The call to attend a religious service between now and Christmas day will be heeded by hundreds here who on other Sundays think of other things.

It is at Christmas-time that the good that is in all men bubbles, perhaps too briefly, to the surface. It is now that the Lord's words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" are truly believed.

Everywhere there is Santa Claus—the spirit of giving and sharing with others. As we think of others and the good we can do, we conjecture on our blessings and more fully appreciate the joys of day-to-day living.

In most of the churches in the community beautiful and impressive Christmas programs will be presented on Sunday and early next week. Youngsters and adults alike should be united in church services and in the beautiful Yuletide services that are offered.

On the anniversary of the birth of Jesus, all peoples everywhere will pause and turn their minds to Him, from whom all blessings flow.

Mackenzie's Column

By DeWitt Mackenzie

Dr. Hewlett Johnson, known around the world as the "Red Dean" of Britain's famous Canterbury cathedral because of his championship of Soviet Russia, has drawn a sharp rebuke for his views from the supreme head of the Church of England—the Archbishop of Canterbury.

This isn't the first time the good doctor has been in a jam with an archbishop and he is taking it in stride. He says he has the right and responsibility as a Christian spokesman to express his Socialist views. He supports this opinion by citing that he was appointed dean by none other than the late Socialist Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald in 1931, precisely because of the clergyman's belief in Socialism.

The dean doesn't hide his political light under a bushel. He is credited with relishing being included among "fellow travelers". To criticism of his "leftist" tendency he once remarked: "You can call me a Red". Among other activities he is a member of the editorial board of the London Daily Worker, the Communist organ.

It is indeed a lost day when Dr. Johnson isn't in the news, and all subjects are grist for his mill. For example, he once expressed regret for the return of long skirts. He advocated shorts and open-neck shirts for choir boys and young acolytes. He decreed that no girl should be excluded from religious services in the cathedral because she was wearing beach pajamas. He defended "pew lovers" who held hands in church.

All these things irked the orthodox no end, but he long has encountered his greatest opposition from religious folks because he is ever standing up in the bleachers and cheering for Russia, which they hook up with atheistic communism. After a trip to the Soviet Union in '38 he said there was nothing essentially anti-religious in Russian Communism and that Russia was a good field for Christianity. A little later five canons of Canterbury cathedral disavowed their dean's politics and accused him of condoning "Russia's offenses against humanity and religion", charges which he denied.

In 1945 he predicted a socialized Europe in 10 years, or much less, and said Socialism wasn't impossible in the United States. A year later, after a trip to the Soviet Union, he delivered a lecture in highly religious Dublin on "What I Saw in Russia", and the speech produced a riot in which several people were injured. It took fifty cops to quell the disturbance.

This is a spot where a layman should tread circumspectly, but tucked away in the back of your correspondent's head is the admonition that "no man can serve two masters". Supporting religion and Communism at the same time strikes me as being like trying to cross Niagara Falls on a tight rope with a kitchen range on each shoulder.

ALL IN A LIFETIME — ANIMAL LIFE

On The Record

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

The London conference did not break down because the Russians demanded 10 billion dollars in reparations from Germany, nor over any of the given issues. And although Walter Lippmann on Tuesday was right in criticizing the council of foreign ministers as a diplomatic instrument, the faults of that instrument are not responsible for the breakdown, nor is the transference of negotiations from the heads of states to their foreign officials.

The reason that all meetings since Yalta and Potsdam have failed to reach agreement, and these latter failed to establish agreements that have been kept, is not because Molotov has supplanted Stalin, Byrnes and Marchall have replaced Roosevelt, and Bevin has taken the place of Churchill.

It is because shortly after Yalta the Germans surrendered, and the Soviets no longer needed to cooperate with the western powers. They never wanted to cooperate. Only the exigencies of war forced them to. And when the war was won they returned to their never abandoned revolutionary program, which precludes cooperation since it aims at the destruction of all non-communist states.

This is the truth and the only important truth.

Although it is not impossible for victims innocently to cooperate with their would-be assassin, it obviously is impossible for the assassin to cooperate with his victims.

Since the end of the war, or since it was in sight, the prospective victims have squght agreements with their assassin, and these have been useful for the latter in strengthening his position for the next move.

All these agreements rested on a fundamentally false premise: that the goal of the Soviets was of class war. All warfare is class warfare even if it takes on national forms. The world is permanently at war, open or latent. The first and second World Wars furthered and were but preludes to the final struggle which will establish the Communist world state. The non-Communist world is, therefore—even if unconsciously—at war with the Soviets to avert its own doom. Ultimate Soviet victory is certain. Meanwhile there must be no relaxation of the struggle and no scruples of an ethical nature, for victory must be complete and irrevocable. There is no middle way.

That is the Communist thesis, expresed in innumerable manifestos, resolutions, and dialectical polemics, and now made visible to all with eyes. To cooperate with the Soviets means to collaborate with that thesis, for the Soviets never will permanently cooperate with any other.

Many persons within all countries unconsciously cooperate to aid that thesis, by convincing themselves through wishful thinking that it does not exist. Others cooperate consciously because they believe it correct, its triumph inevitable and desirable, and devotion to it a "higher loyalty" than any due another nation, religion, or civilization. And some try to stand mid-road between victims and assassin, and they are just silly people.

The thesis is not complicated. it is so simple that the most simple—not the most simple minded—see it clearest. It is not tiny, requiring a microscope to find. It is as vast as the earth, and visible at every point of the earth. It does not include magnanimity nor compromise. Within it there is room for only one faith, only one socialism, and only one inexorable logic: unremitting struggle with all means until the globe is designed in one uniform Communist pattern.

If Bourgeois intellectuals and statesmen have failed to see, it is because they seldom can grasp anything simple, and their eyesight is beclouded by their own ideas. But by now Bevin, Bidault and Marshall see, too. They see that really successful cooperation with the Soviets on any question whatsoever demands not negotiations between heads of states but new heads of states: Pollitt, perhaps, in Britain; Thorez in France; Wallace — temporarily — in the United States . . . some equivalent for the heads of states represented in the Comintern, whose real head is in the Kremlin.

That is the way it is, and that is why the London conference broke down. It had to break down. For cooperation always must stop short of suicide.

Goggles for industrial use can be made of glass so tough it can be dropped more than ten feet to a concrete floor without breaking.

State Beef Supply Assured

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Cattle feeding is taking a sharp upward spurt in California this winter, responding to the meat demands of the state's greatly increased population.

A government report, based on a state survey, estimated the number of cattle on feed early this month at 16 percent above a year ago.

Early rains in Northern California started pasture growth in October, encouraging an earlier movement of cattle into the state for feeding.

Another factor is the state's bumper sugar beet crop, about double the 10-year average. That means large tonnage of beet pulp for the feed lots.

Dan C. McKinney, secretary of the California cattlemen's association, said today that probably 90 percent of the cattle on feed are in the hands of packers. They contract with commercial feeders to bring the animals to marketing weight.

This method of feeding for the market, he explained, is the outgrowth of war conditions, high priced feeds and threats that government controls again may be instituted.

A commercial feeder who must face these uncertainties, McKinney said, has little chance of breaking even compared with the packer who can average out costs by handling the animals through to the dressed meat stage.

Tourists Helped Pay State Taxes

Out-of-state tourists absorbed a sizeable portion of Southern California's tax load through their spendings inside the area during the past year, the All-Year Club revealed today.

The vacation visitors paid approximately $8,244,000 in sales and gasoline taxes, according to the community travel advertising organization.

Hmph! This fellow could save me a lot of trouble by ordering one of those

"LISTEN TO IT PURR NOW! . . .

I'm proud of that! To hear the old bus now, you'd never think she's rolled a 100,000 miles over a period of 7 years hard driving.

Yes, sir,—it's amazing what a difference a new RAMCO 10UP Ring Job will make in an old car.

And it's pretty surprising how little a new RAMCO 10UP Ring Job costs, too."

If YOU'VE been putting off that new ring job because of the "cost," may we suggest you check with your favorite garageman, and learn how surprisingly inexpensive it is to install a full set of the new, improved RAMCO 10UP Piston Rings.

The new RAMCO 10UP Ring won't cure ALL your car ills, but it will smooth out a harsh motor, cut oil costs, and restore old time pep and performance to tired cars. What's more, it will head off more costly repair bills caused by worn, inefficient rings.

State Contracting For $400,000 Worth of Gasoline

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State-owned motor vehicles will burn $400,000 more worth of gasoline and oil during 1948, than in 1947, Finance Director James S. Dean estimated today.

No contract will be awarded for service station deliveries, Dean also announced, because the companies offering figures quoted prices identical with those private motorists pay. Since the usual discount was not offered this year, Dean said, he is investigating the establishment of additional state-owned service stations in metropolitan areas where wholesale products may be obtained.

Cal, Purdue, SMU Rated Nation's Most Improved Teams in Poll of Writers

NEW YORK (AP)—California, Purdue and Southern Methodist are rated the most improved football teams of 1947 in the annual Associated Press season-end poll of writers, coaches and athletic directors. The same group tabbed Ohio State and Iowa as the greatest disappointments.

Lynn Waldorf, coaching the California Bears for the first time, walked into a tough job. The team lost seven of nine starts in 1946. In a complete reversal of form by many of the same players, California won nine of 10, losing only to Southern Cal., the Pacific Coast conference champions, 39-14.

Purdue bounced around the Big Nine cellar in 1946 but rallied strongly behind new coach Stu Holcomb for five wins and four defeats in strenuous competition.

Southern Methodist, led by Doak Walker, swept through the Southwest conference with a perfect record until tied by Texas Christian in its final game. A 14-13 decision over Texas was the clincher. Coach Matty Bell's Mustangs won only four of 10 in 1946.

ANSE McCULLOUGH NAMED HELMS 'PLAYER OF MONTH'

"Amblin' Anse" McCullough, who quarterbacked the Chaffey Panthers to the national jaysee football championship this year, has been chosen Southern California's Athlete of the Month and will receive the Helms Foundation Award Dec. 27.

The honor was voted Anse by sports editors of Los Angeles newspapers making up the board. The writers had previously dubbed McCullough "Mr. Pass-Key" for his skill in unlocking victory gates for the Panthers throughout the past season.

Instrumental in forming the board's decision were Anse's performances in the Panthers' last two games against Mt. San Antonio for the OEC championship and against Cameron for the national title.

Against Mt. Sac on Thanksgiving Day, McCullough exploded, passing for two touchdowns, booting an 85-yard quick kick and returning a kickoff 95 yards to a touchdown.

In the Little Rose Bowl game McCullough humbled the Cameron Aggies with his sensational performance. He tossed two touchdown passes, one of which travelled 55 yards in the air, and came out of the game with a 53.5 punting average. In addition he quarterbacked the Panthers superbly, outsmarting the Aggie defense time and again with his split-second decisions.

During the season he maneuvered the Panthers to 18 touchdowns on the ground and 11 by air this year. His season punting average was better than 50 yards, most of them landing in the "coffin corner".

Anse will receive the Helms award the evening of Dec. 27, just prior to the final game of the Los Angeles College Invitational basketball championships at Olympic auditorium, Los Angeles.

Ralph Kiner Due At Galvin Park

Ralph Kiner, the slugging star of the Pittsburgh Pirates, will make a personal appearance at Galvin park Sunday when Ontario battles the St. Mary's club of Los Angeles, Kenny Smith announces.

The Buc star is scheduled to put on an exhibition of hitting, along with Babe Herman, manager of the Ontario nine. Kiner blasted 51 round-trippers during the 1947 campaign to tie with Johnny Mize of the Giants in that division.

In the ball game which follows, the Pirates will be trying for the first win in a row. Smith, who chucked a six-hit shutout last week, will pitch, with Ed Conforti behind the bat.

Nags of Every Nation at Santa Anita

ARCADIA (AP)—Santa Anita park, by the time it opens its winter meeting Dec. 27, may look like a stable of all nations.

Scores of thoroughbreds from abroad are already on the grounds and more are due in for the 50-day session with its stakes program worth $750,000—three $100,000 races and nine for $50,000 apiece.

Three times in the 10 editions of the famed $100,000 Santa Anita handicap a foreign threat has come through first, and considering the percentages, no one discounts the chances of another grabbing the big prize next Feb. 28.

A converted steeplechaser from Ireland, Azucar, won the first hundred grander in 1935; Charles S. Howard's Kayak II from the Argentine was first in 1939 (and second to his stablemate Seabiscuit in 1940), and last March the gallcping grey from Chile, Olhaverry, upset the field and won drawing away from such name challengers as the great Armed and others.

The foreign invasion is larger than ever this year. It includes Australia's Shannon, Ireland's Sullivan and champion 2-year-old, The Web; Chile's Olhaverry and Adrogue, Italy's Gladiola, Mexico's Cuadra San Luis and Cuadra Coahila, as well as an importer-trainer Horatio Luro, who is responsible for such contenders here as Rico Monte, Talon and others.

Charles S. Howard has a Britisher, Fair Truckle, ready to go in the $50,000 San Carlos handicap Jan. 1, while Mrs. Ann Pepper's Sullivan and the English-bred Radiotherapy (three-quarters in 1:13 recently), and R. C. Ellsworth's Khaled are ready for early starts.

The Web, newly flown across the Atlantic, probably won't go until the $100,000 derby on closing day, March 6.

PHILADELPHIA — Johnny Walker, 162, Philadelphia, awarded decision over Jerry Hemminger, 161½, Tiffin, Ohio, (Hemminger disqualified in 7th round for "not trying.")

PITTSBURGH — Al Gualteri, 131, Washington, Pa., awarded decision over Billy Gillian, 133, Homestead, Pa. ,(Gillian disqualified in 6th round for "not fighting").

Panthers Move Into Semi-Finals

Morrison High Point Man in Rout of Berdoo

By DON BENSON

The Chaffey Panthers advanced to the semi-finals of the Chaffey basketball tournament last night by their scintillating 57 to 45 triumph over the San Bernardino Braves.

Chaffey, without their stellar coach, Harvey Shirk, who was awaiting the arrival of the stork, was led to the victory by football coach Ray Rosso.

Although San Berdoo exhibited better team play at times, the Panthers were always in front, and when it appeared that it would be close, kept up their offensive strength to win easily.

The West Virginian, Roy Morrison, led the parade with 15 markers, closely followed by some guy named Anse McCullough with 13, for top scoring honors.

After leading 29 to 18 at halftime, the Panthers had a comfortable lead until midway in the last quarter, when the Indians drew up to 46 to 41, only to have Anse, Roy Morrison, Vince Melendrez and Chet Nicholson toss in goals for a meaty lead.

SANTA MONICA, 45—RIVERSIDE 33

The Santa Monica Corsairs continued to look the class of the tournament, as they handed the pretty classy Riverside Tigers a not gaudy but neat 45 to 33 loss last night in the opening game of the upper brackets.

The Corsairs of the beach town didn't have any heavy scorer, showing an all-out team effort to bend the Bengals from Riverside. The Santa Monicans are distinct threats to the championship hopes of any team in the tournament.

FREE-SHOTS

We got quite a kick out of little but terrific Mr. Bradbury of the Corona Bradburys. This small size guy fights like a demon and has a good eye, plus lots of zip. We like that . . .

Anse McCullough, Chet Nicholson and George Weaver are naturally having trouble converting over from the greatest game ever played in the Rose Bowl to basketball, but just give them time, brother—and they'll be O. K. Records will prove it, too.

LUJACK AWARDED TROPHY

Wolverines On the Way

LA JUNTA, Colo. (AP)—Michigan's 44-man football squad, bound for the Rose Bowl for the first time in 46 years, planned nine strenuous practice sessions in Pasadena, Calif., after brief stops here and at Aubuquerque, N. M.

Coach Fritz Crisler's undefeated western conference champions sped westward today on a 10-car special section of the Santa Fe's Super Chief after a noisy sendoff yesterday at Ann Arbor and a reception by Michigan alumni at Chicago.

The official Michigan party numbered 101, including the squad, Crisler and his six assistants. There also are more than 80 newspapermen.

Graves To Dons

BERKELEY (AP) — Fullback Johnny Graves and end Harry Agler of the University of California said today they have signed with the Los Angeles Done of the All-American football conference.
